SCHEDULE “B” TO BY-LAW NO. XX-18

REASONS FOR DESIGNATION

James Simpson Jr. House
34 Oxford Street

Statement of Cultural Heritage Value or Interest

The James Simpson Jr. House is a one-and-a-half storey classic Ontario farmhouse (c.1865) located on the north side of Oxford Street. The house originally faced east towards Yonge Street, but was relocated and reoriented to its current location in 1998.

The cultural heritage value of the James Simpson Jr. House lies in its design as a classic Ontario farmhouse. The house retains elements of an earlier period including the strongly articulated return eaves at the gable ends and at the centre gable where they form a broken pediment reminiscent of Classical Revival architecture. The house is clad in wood shiplap siding.

The house was likely built by James Simpson Jr. (c.1865) as a farm house.

Originally, the structure contained a rear wing that had a patterned stucco surface that was a deliberate attempt to replicate an ashlar cut stone appearance. The rear wing also included an at grade cellar entrance that was possible due to the building's original hillside location. The rear wing was removed in 1998 when the structure was relocated.

Description of Heritage Attributes

- One-and-a-half storey, three bay Ontario farmhouse massing
- Simple, symmetrical form and classic proportioning;
- The strongly articulated return eaves containing a lower wooden frieze at the gable ends and centre gable;
- Central front doorway with transom and symmetrically and classically positioned windows;
- Classically articulated front veranda with shaped columns and bell-cast roof.
