4. Delegations

4.1 David Frattaroli, representing the property owner, regarding the Assessment of the Cultural Heritage Value of 53 Centre Street East - (refer to Item 5.1)

David Frattaroli, representing the property owner, addressed the Heritage Richmond Hill Committee regarding the cultural heritage value of 53 Centre Street East under the Ontario Heritage Act. He provided historical information on the property, specifically related to its construction and ownership, and noted that the homes owned and inhabited by William Graham (90 Centre Street East) and Ira D. Ramer (33 Roseview Avenue) had already been designated. Mr. Frattaroli referred to the Cultural Heritage Impact Assessment that was prepared by Joan Burt Architect, and advised that the Assessment concluded 53 Centre Street East does not meet the criteria or merit designation under the Ontario Heritage Act. Mr. Frattaroli requested that a demolition permit be granted to permit the construction of two homes on the property.

5. Scheduled Business

5.1 SRPRS.19.091 - Assessment of the Cultural Heritage Value of 53 Centre Street East - File Number D12-07086

Committee Members discussed the contextual value of 53 Centre Street East and the information and recommendations contained in the staff report in comparison to the information and recommendations contained in the Cultural Heritage Impact Assessment prepared by Joan Burt Architect.

Committee Members discussed the option of moving the dwelling, whether the property could accommodate two homes, the reasons for the removal of the front porch, and the process to ensure any potential new structures would meet the community design guidelines. Staff advised the property had a wider frontage so it would be possible to insert an additional home and maintain the streetscape, and that through the site plan review process, they would be able to ensure design guidelines were met. Mr. Frattaroli advised that the front porch was removed for safety reasons.

Committee requested clarification on the history of the property, specifically related to the site plan application submitted by the owner in August 2018 to move the existing dwelling and construct a new dwelling, followed by the demolition application submitted by the owner in April 2019. Mr. Frattaroli explained the rationale for deciding to submit the demolition application, and reiterated the property owner's intent was to build two new homes and not have the property designated.
