Policy Name:	Member of Council Expense Policy
Policy Owner:	Corporate and Financial Services –Treasurer and Clerk
Approved by:	Council
Effective Date:	September 12, 2018
Date of Last Revision:	June 1, 2012
Review Date:	as required
Procedure Status:	revised

Purpose:

This Policy guides the expenditures that support Members of Council in performing their diverse roles and in representing their constituents. Members are provided with individual budgets (Councillor Constituency Budgets) to allow Members of Council to:

- Administer their offices as a Member of Council.
- Represent Richmond Hill at functions or events.
- Perform their duties as Elected Officials.

This Policy is intended to:

- Identify the process that Members of Council and their support staff use to administer their Councillor Constituency Budgets.
- Recognize Members of Council accountability for managing Richmond Hill resources allocated to them.
- Provide specific and clear direction regarding expenses and identify "eligible" and "ineligible" what expenses
- Provide Members of Council with the flexibility to allocate resources in the most efficient way to meet their own particular requirements.

Richmond Hill is committed to reimbursing Members of Council for all reasonable costs incurred in the course of fulfilling their duties. It is expected that all Members of Council who incur business expenses will exercise their best judgment when incurring such expenses.

Policy Principles:

When interpreting this Policy, the following principles shall be considered:

Integrity of Council

- The integrity of Council as a whole and the offices of the Members of Council must be protected.
- The interest of Council as a whole takes precedence over the personal interest of individual Members of Council.

Accountability

- Members of Council are to use public funds prudently.
- Members of Council are the stewards of Richmond Hill resources and are ultimately accountable to the public and their constituents for the type and level of expenses they incur.
- Members of Council expenses must be reasonable and reflect what the public expects of an elected official.

Transparency

- Information associated with public funds Richmond Hill allocates to Members of Council is public information.
- The public's ability to access information relating to the expenses of Members of Council must be balanced against the need to protect privacy and personal information, and allow time for proper accounting and reconciliation of expenses.

Compliance

- Councillor Constituency Budgets must be administered in accordance with Richmond Hill policies and procedures as well as all other statutory requirements.

Scope

This Policy applies to all Members of Council and sets out the rules governing the eligibility and ineligibility of expenses of Members of Council and the conditions for reimbursement and the process for receiving payment of Eligible Expenses through Councillor Constituency Budgets.

Policy

Members of Council are committed to the principles of this Policy in the use of their Individual Constituency Budget. Council determines the annual amount of an individual Constituency Budgets. Members have discretion, subject to this Policy, over how they allocate their individual Councillor Constituency Budgets. The Policy sets out those expense categories in which Members of Council could incur expenses when performing their diverse roles and in representing their constituents, and defines which of those expenses are eligible expenses and which are ineligible expenses. The Policy also sets out those conditions under which eligible expenses will be reimbursed from a Member of Council's Council Contingency Budget. Only “eligible expenses” that meet the “Conditions for Reimbursement of Expense” shall be charged to the Member's Councillor Constituency Budgets and/or reimbursed to the Member. A Member is personally responsible for paying any "Ineligible Expenses" as well as any "eligible expenses" that exceed their annual budget.

Constituency Budgets in an Election Year

In an election year the amount of the approved Constituency Budget available for a Member's use will be prorated based on the date of the end of the current term of Council. No Member shall incur expenses that exceed the prorated amount of Constituency Budget prior to the end of term of Council. A Member who is reelected, and any new Member, may use the remaining balance of the annual Constituency Budget beginning on the first day of the new term of Council.
