I have been living in the Yonge & Bernard area for more than 10 years.

I don't think development of 37 story apartment at Yonge and Bernard is the right direction Richmond Hill should go. This will clog the already crowded area. It took 10 minutes for me to go to the Richmond Hill go station during rush hour 5 years ago; but now the time has doubled. This is not a sound decision for the sustainability of the city.

The city should consider the benefit of existing residents when building any development plan.

I thank you for your time and consideration.

Regards,

Jessie
