10.3 Presentation by Paolo Masaro, Acting Commissioner of Environment and Infrastructure Services, regarding an update to the Civic Administration Centre Accommodations - (refer to Item 12.6)

Paolo Masaro, Acting Commissioner of Environment and Infrastructure Services, made a presentation to Council regarding an update to the Civic Administration Centre Accommodations Study. He provided an overview of the Civic Project for a combined City Hall and Central Library located at the southwest corner of Yonge Street and Major Mackenzie Drive and highlighted the chronological order of key milestones from 1988 to 2018, including Council's direction to provide alternate options for the Project. He reviewed the 20-year outlook for office space needs at 225 East Beaver Creek Road including a new office space standard; City-owned accommodation options; risks and opportunities; principles used to select the preferred option; and summarized the findings related to the recommended way forward - Option 5: EBC renovation and satellite (City owned). P. Masaro also reviewed the office space projection needs to 2026, noting it was not immediate as the City was moving toward a larger more permanent digital and remote workforce and that there was available space at the Operations Centre, including potential satellite location candidates by department; and outlined the implementation timeline of Option 5 for the Project. P. Masaro reviewed the citizen-focused approach to delivering government services, considerations for implementing Option 5, and the recommendations contained in staff report SREIS.20.003 for Council's consideration.

11. Delegations

11.1 Jason Lee, 11491 Leslie Street, regarding Amendment of the Kennel Licensing By-law - (refer to Items 12.5 and 15.1)

Jason Lee, 11491 Leslie Street, addressed Council regarding Amendment of the Kennel Licensing By-law. He expressed concerns with the proposed By-law amendment noting it would no longer allow him to renew his business license in December 2020. J. Lee advised of his discussions with staff and indicated that he was unable to obtain written confirmation that his business would be protected.

11.2 Carol Davidson, Green Meadow Crescent, regarding the Lake Wilcox Park Pay Parking - (refer to Item 12.4)

Carol Davidson, Green Meadow Crescent, addressed Council regarding the Lake Wilcox Park Pay Parking. She advised of concerns related to high volume park use, lack of visitor parking, and illegal parking in the park and on area streets. She advised that paid parking was not her preferred option, but stated that if it would help control the visitor volume, then it would be a step in the right direction toward organization. Ms. Davidson indicated that Richmond Hill residents should be exempt from paying a parking fee and suggested hiring a Park Manager to patrol park overcrowding and to monitor park activities.
