Description of your organization and the purpose of the proclamation (Please include a brief description and any other relevant information related to your request. Additional information/documentation may be attached to this application as needed.) June is Brain Injury Awareness Month in Canada. 452 Canadians suffer a serious traumatic brain injury every day. This amounts to nearly one person every 3 minutes, equaling almost 165,000 serious brain injuries per year. This does not include concussions, non-traumatic brain injuries, military injuries, or unreported cases.  The Brain Injury Association of York Region (BIAYR) is a non-profit organization providing support, education and advocacy to individuals who have survived brain injury, as well as their families. Last year, we were thrilled to be able to offer our members a
