Subject:

As a resident of Richmond Hill, I want to go on record prior to this weeks council meeting, that I greatly oppose Councillor Greg Beros' motion to waive the 140K debt owed to the city by Councillor Carmine Perrelli for the failed blue bin exchange during the Enviro Day he held.

Perrelli made clear assurances that the program would be fully funded by donations and clearly he failed to secure the required funding and now is wanting the residence of Richmond Hill to pay. Council subsequently voted and ordered him to repay the amount spent on the program and therefore, it is Councillors sole responsibility to pay this back. I for one did not approve of this expenditure and did not agree to the Enviro Day and what it stood for.

It is an affront to the residents of Richmond that Beros is moving to forgive this debt, which should have been repaid long ago.
