Subject: 101 Bloomington Road-12 storey proposal

RE:

Revised development proposal for a 12-storey building at 101 Bloomington Road (Briar Nine Park and Reserve and Grovepark Street area) :

The proposed building height of 12 storeys greatly exceeds the maximum height of 4 storeys permitted in Oak Ridges and the proposal does not conform to either the City's Official Plan or the Regional Official Plan.

I am writing as a resident of Richmond Hill and as someone who resides in the Oak Ridges neighborhood. I greatly oppose this proposal and question why such a proposal is being reviewed when citizens have expressed time and time again that we do not want building of over 4 storeys.
