

From: IJAY Bajnok

Sent: Tuesday, June 20, 2023 7:55 AM

To: Clerks Richmondhill <clerks@richmondhill.ca>

Subject: Poultry in residential areas

I do feel our residential areas are not large enough to accommodate live poultry in back yards. We have learned much in the past years re transmission of disease and there is much we do not know. There seems no clear purpose to have live chickens in one's back yard in a residential area and the disadvantages especially potential for disease transmission as well as funds to monitor this from a municipal perspective are numerous.

Please vote no. Thank you

Irmajean Bajnok
25 Castleridge Drive
Richmond Hill