REASONS FOR DESIGNATION

41 Elgin Mills Road East
The William Neal House

Statement of Cultural Heritage Value or Interest

The subject property at 41 Elgin Mills Road East contains direct architectural and associative/historical value as the home of William Neal, the first mayor of the Town of Richmond Hill and a businessman who was closely associated with the rising significance of the automobile within Richmond Hill.

William Neal served in World War I, and returned to Richmond Hill after being wounded at the Battle of Petit Vimy. He served on Richmond Hill Council in the 1940's and later as Reeve of the Village of Richmond Hill from 1944 to 1947 and again in 1951. He became the first mayor of the Town of Richmond Hill in 1957 and served again in 1963. When he was inducted as mayor, Richmond Hill had a population of less than 8,500 residents. During his tenure he oversaw the addition of 164 houses in the Beverly Acres subdivision, developed plans for a new town swimming pool, and was significantly involved with the founding of York Central Hospital.

As a businessman, William opened one of the first Dodge dealerships in Canada in 1931, on the east side of Yonge Street, just south of Lorne Avenue. In 1934, he was appointed Richmond Hill's first and only motor vehicle licence issuer. The office was the first to open north of Steeles Avenue, in what was then a mostly rural area and continued to operate until its closure in 1997.

In the early 1970's, William and his family relocated north of Richmond Hill to 41 Elgin Mills Road East where he subdivided the parcel into three smaller lots to contain his dealership, licencing office, and personal dwelling respectively.

The property contains a unique historic mixture of automotive and residential uses that link directly to William Neal. William Neal's residence is the primary physical attribute associated with the first Mayor of the Town of Richmond Hill.

Description of Heritage Attributes

Key exterior and interior attributes that contribute to the design value of 41 Elgin Mills Road East (the William Neal House) include the following:

- The two-and-a-half storey American foursquare house with broad-eaved hip roof.
